Finances Marieke	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - $159.62 for events to spend that doesn't include the last bomber event - Chelsea says there's maybe $50 of that left after the Bomber event - $259 left to spend still (including the events stuff above)
Communications Skaidra	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Talking to Meghan, want to put together a rant video for upcoming KISS election (Rick Mercer style) - Rant about positions (not people)? - Want to get as many people involved that want to - Note: opening up nominations this coming seminar. BUT WAIT, this coming seminar is actually not seminar because it's Good Friday - SOOO election nominations will be open from the 22nd (still this Friday) to the 5th - Thinking about doing it next Monday after KISS meeting
Bryson	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - When voting happens, make it an AGM (annual general meeting) - We have to have an AGM once per term at least, soooo what an opportunity - This coming ESS meeting, they will be voting on the honorarium - Will be submitting a proposal for money for pancakes - Might be good to have an exact cost breakdown for that from Sally? - Went to UGST meeting today, fyi there is now a policy where if you're halfway through a term and have a medical condition that prevents you from finishing the term, you get a year grace period to finish those courses (acronym for policy is AEG - aegrotat(sp?))

Events Chelsea	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Pancakes happening next Monday after KISS meeting - Note: Atrium closes at 6:00pm, so should probably have it in studio - End of term event - when should it happen? - Tuesday, April 9 - Make sure we talk to ESS 	Put it in email, make fb event, etc. for pancakes Bryson make sure nothing else going on Tuesday, April 9th at next ESS Meeting Chelsea put something in KISS email this week about end of term event, and put up sign up list on one or more bulletin boards
Kinnovations Jesse	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Made logo last term - Found cheaper way to get t-shirts - bought 5, should be here by end of the week - Doing some consulting for Christina who is trying to make Integ175 - “Thinking with Your Hands”, a course to teach students how to use tools to build stuff, take stuff apart, fix stuff, etc. - Paul is bringing it to a course design workshop, trying to get it done by then - A lot of editing for design option proposal for second draft, want to get it to Ed soon
Website Tiff	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Update website a lot - Almost done - Just have to talk to Paul about some things - https://cki.uwaterloo.ca/kiss - Everyone can have their own userid on top of the Quest one so that you can log in to edit and update - If you want, Tiff can hold a session where she shows us how to add content and change stuff - Any suggestions about content to add, just talk to Tiffany! - Send big pictures to Tiff for banner

Kinnections Krista and Bess	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Working on website that should be an online business card or resume - Will be a website employers can go to, sortable, can click on business cards, would have more information in that window and links to more information about you! - Have someone to help build the website (Alex Truong) - Just wondering where it'll be (KISS website or KI website or both?) - Connect with Tiff to talk about the website - for you at Waterloo day - in the past it's been a lot of people wandering around Environment, so instead have something going on in the Studio so potential KI students have a location to come to - This is in May - Talked to Christina about it and she is excited about it - in August-ish when everyone has been accepted, have a website with current students answering questions on a live-feed - Workshop for KI students for resumes and stuff - they don't do personalized stuff, but there is a question period at the end. Do we want to do that? They have an opening on April 8th, which is a Monday with a Friday schedule, so we could have it when seminar usually is
Other Updates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Ian - KIX went really well! - WESEF proposal for more tools for the woodshop passed - we got $10,000 due to Alex Pearce's proposal and Ian's presentation! Tools should be here in the next few weeks. - Bryson - Jessilyn get receipts from ESS office - Tomorrow resume workshop 1pm-3pm EV3 rm 121 and it's freeeeee - March 26 8pm-1am Environment Night at the Bomber - Update from 4th yrs - they're getting a gift (personalized stamps) for CKI faculty
