ESS update:

- Geography and aviation trying to be their own association but it's not going over very well
- We can sign out ESS board games for our games night
 - o Someone without specifying their association contacted Sally saying they wanted to do a combined games night with us but they haven't told us who they are?

Open House

- Not really taking first year volunteers because more people want to talk to upper years
- Schedule is going to be posted too

Website

- I met with Alex we talked about the database
- And accounts

Transition doc

- Easy to do it over the year so you don't scramble at the end

Pumpkin Carving

- Oct 29th, 5:30-8
- Pizza and candy will be there, possibly even pumpkin pie

Rocky Horror

- Probs not feasible

- But still going to do it, better to just pick a night and time and tell people to go to it and buy their own tickets

Kinnovations

- Want to do another one, but when? After midterms doesn't exist, so when?
- Last time Wed around 4 was a good turn out, but first years couldn't make it, so make it a bit later and more could go

Side notes

- If you have ideas for events, just let us know, we can try to be flexible.
- Depends on who is events

Spirit wear

- Quotes in this morning
- KISS tshirts -- $12.52 plus tax, no set up cost, need at least 24 for these prices
- Quarter zips $22.87, plus $5 for embroidery, screen print $3, so which one? Individual customization $15 extra, need at least 24 for these prices
 - o Like embroidered better
- Form should be out by Monday
- Details from last order were linked to Matt, details from the crewneck year
- Tax is not included in these

Hashtag of the week

- #getspoopy

Trick or treat in KI hallway still a thing, even though Kim didn't answer Karissa's email, but probs still happening

WESEF – Chloe is going to go to another meeting because nothing really happened in the last one

- Like finding physical things better

Networking

- Nov 4
- 10 ish companies coming
- Spread the word so people come
- Business card session in the air?
 - o Maybe one of the upper years could do it? Sally?
 - o Attach at front or back end of study session or something?
- Talk to Joan Adair about networking?
